Holly Springs, Mississippi

Construction started on the Presbyterian Church 1860. During the War between the States, Yankee invaders took possession of the building and converted the second floor into a Hospital, while using the first floor as a stable to shelter their horses. Construction was completed early in 1869 and the Rev. B. M. Palmer of New Orleans, La. delivered the Dedication Sermon on March 28, 1869.

Distr. by: Camera Repair Service, Huntsville, Alabama

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Color by Hub Gardner

71059